

Frequently Asked Questions

What English language courses are taught in the School of Law?

The list of the courses taught in English is available in the section of the School of Law's website dedicated to the incoming students link

Who should I contact to have my learning agreement signed?

In order to have your LA signed, please send it correctly drafted to the e-mail address of the International Commission of the School of Law (international.law@unimib.it).

Who should I contact to arrange my learning agreement?

In order to fill out the LA correctly, please e-mail the Bicocca University Angels (info.erasmus@unimib.it) or the International Commission of the School of Law (international.law@unimib.it).

When do Law courses start at Bicocca?

The teaching calendar in Italian and in English is available on the website of the School of Law.

Can an incoming student also attend courses taught in Italian?

Incoming students can also attend courses taught in Italian. For further information, please refer to the section of the School of Law website dedicated to the incoming students.

Where can I check out the timetable for my classes?

Class timetables can be checked via the Agenda Web

What to do in case I have problems registering for exams?

If you have problems registering for exams, please contact the welcome desk (welcome.desk@unimib.it).

Which documents are required for incoming students?

For administrative questions, please contact the welcome desk (welcome.desk@unimib.it).