Working with Legal English

Overview

These seven workshops are designed to give you an opportunity to explore general legal topics that you will deal with in your studies and your career. During the sessions, we will work on your ability to understand and produce the vocabulary you need to work with those topics. We will work on your ability to use your English-language skills (reading, listening, writing, speaking) and we will practice using your academic skills in English.

Topics

- Studying Law
- International Law
- Crimes & Torts
