Courses in English offered to all students:

Courses in English are held in the first and second semester with the programs:

A) Peacekeeping program

B) Comparative Law of Business Organizations

All info – credits and syllabus – can be read on the website of the School of Law – link «Classes in English»

Other chances:

For international students, in addition to courses held in English, further chances are available:

- Courses held in Italian: each professor in charge of the course can help you with specific information and eventually with additional readings in order to allow you to better comprehend the topics discussed in the classes.
- Consider that many courses held in Italian (e.g. comparative law courses, EU courses, tax law) require for all students the reading and studying of English materials.

Attendance at classes: for some course attendance is essential and monitored. If you miss teaching, please ask your colleagues or the professor for info and materials.
